Circular

Date 16.09.2016

To

Launch, Barge, Tug and Craft Operators and Owners

Sub: Stream passes for crew of Launch/Barge/Tug/Craft

In suppression of previous circulars issued from our office with reference to Stream passes.

- Barges, Tugs, Launches and crafts means any vessel licenced by Dy Conservator under Indian Port Act 1908.(Passenger Boat Licence , Harbour Craft Licence or Pass Pilot)
- Barges, Tugs, Launches and Crafts operating within the Mumbai Port Facility landing areas and having a physical interface, would warrant its crew to carry stream passes issued by the Dy Conservator office, Marine Department.
- Barges, Tugs, Launches, Crafts and its crew operating within the Mumbai Port Facility and not having physical interface with the landing areas are exempted from carrying the stream passes. This exemption would be applicable currently to barges operating between the ISPS compliant Ports of Dharamtar, Revdanda and Tata Power, solely engaged in lighterage operations, within the designated Port Anchorages and Lighterage areas of MbPT.
- As per the Port Facility Security Plan (ISPS Code), it is mandatory that Barges, Tugs, Launches and Crafts need to obtain sanitization certificate from PFSO MbPT or equivalent records from respective ISPS compliant port's PFSO, to go alongside or to service or interface with ships at inner anchorage and Port Lighterage Area Anchorage including ships in the berth. Such records would have to be documented on a periodical basis.
- Stream Passes issued to crew (working on board) ,as warranted based on the interface compliance for period of one month and more should have valid Identity Card, such as copy of Valid Passport or Police verification from Yellow gate Police Station and Aadhaar Card.

- Barges, Tugs, Launches and Crafts should be manned and operated by certified crew as per the statutory rules applicable.
- In addition to the above as applicable if warranted every Craft should have an updated Crew list duly signed by the Master or Owner.
- Violation of above procedure would attract appropriate penal action including cancelation of Licence or Pass pilot of the craft issued by DC Office.
