CHAPTER II

STAMP DUTIES

(A)—Of the Liability Of Instruments to Duty

3. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the exemptions contained in Schedule I, the following instruments shall be chargeable with duty of the amount indicated in Schedule I as the proper duty therefor respectively, that is to say—Instrument chargeable with duty.

(a) every instrument mentioned in Schedule I, which, not having been previously executed by any person, is executed in the State on or after the date of commencement of this Act ;

(b) every instrument mentioned in Schedule I, which , not having been previously executed by any person, is executed out of the State on or after the said date, relates to any property situate, or to any matter or thing done or to be done in this State and is received in this State :

¹[Provided that a copy or extract, whether certified to be a true copy or not and whether a facsimile image or otherwise of the original instrument on which stamp duty is chargeable under the provisions of this section shall be chargeable with full stamp duty indicated in Schedule I if the proper duty payable on such original instrument is not paid :]

²[Provided further that] no duty shall be chargeable in respect of—

(1) any instrument executed by or on behalf of, or in favour of, the Government in cases where, but for this exemption, the Government would be liable to pay the duty chargeable in respect of such instrument ³[or where the Government has undertaken to bear the expenses towards the payment of the duty.]

XIX

⁵ These words were substituted, for the words " twenty rupees" by Mah.13 of 2004, s. 3.

(2) The parties may determine for themselves which of the instruments so employed shall, for the purposes of sub-section (1), be deemed to be the principal instrument.

¹[(3) If the parties fail to determine the principal instrument between themselves then the officer before whom the instrument is produced may, for the purposes of this section, determine the principal instrument] :

Provided that the duty chargeable on the instrument so determined shall be the highest duty which would be chargeable in respect of any of the said instruments employed.

¹ Sub-section (3) was inserted by Mah. 27 of 1985, s. 4(b).

5. Any instrument comprising or relating to several distinct matters shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the duties with which separate instruments each comprising or relating to one of such matters, would be chargeable under this Act.

Instrument relating to several distinct matters.

6. Subject to the provisions of section 5, an instrument so framed as to come within two or more of the descriptions in Schedule I shall, where the duties chargeable thereunder are different, be chargeable only with the highest of such duties :

Instruments coming within several description in Schedule I.

Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall render chargeable with duty exceeding ¹[ten rupees] a counterpart or duplicate of any instrument chargeable with duty and in respect of which the proper duty has been paid.

7. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 4 or 6 or in any other enactment, unless it is proved that the duty chargeable under this Act has been paid,—

Payment of higher duty in respect of certain instruments.

(a) on the principal or original instrument, as the case may be, or

(b) in accordance with the provisions of this section,

the duty chargeable on an instrument of sale, mortgage or settlement other than a principal instrument or on a counterpart, duplicate or copy of any instrument shall if the principal or original instrument would, when received in this State have been chargeable under this Act with a higher rate of duty, be the duty with which the principal or original instrument would have been chargeable under section 19.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any enactment for the time being in force, no instrument, counterpart, duplicate or copy chargeable with duty under this section shall be received in evidence unless the duty chargeable under this section has been paid thereon :

Provided that any Court before which any such instrument, duplicate or copy is produced may permit the duty chargeable under this section to be paid thereon and may then receive it in evidence :

²[(3) The provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, in so far as they relate to the recovery of duties chargeable on instruments under section 3 shall, so far as may be, apply to the recovery of duties chargeable on a counter-part, duplicate or a copy of an instrument under sub-section (1).]

8. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, any local authority raising a loan under the provisions of the Local Authorities Loans Act, 1914, or of any other law for the time being in force, by the issue of bonds or securities other than debentures shall, in respect of such loan, be chargeable with a duty of ³[two per centum] on the total amount of such bonds or securities issued by it, and such bonds or securities need not be stamped, and shall not be chargeable with any further duty on renewal, consolidation, sub-division or otherwise.

Bonds or securities other than debentures issued on loans under Act IX of 1914 or other law.

¹ These words were substituted for the words " three rupees ", by Mah. 27 of 1985, s. 5.

² Sub-section (3) was added by Mah. 17 of 1993, s. 29.

³ These words were substituted for the words " one and half per centum " by Mah. 17 of 1993, s. 30.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) exempting certain bonds or securities from being stamped and from being chargeable with certain further duty shall apply to the bonds or securities other than debentures of all outstanding loans of the kind mentioned therein, and all such bonds or securities shall be valid, whether the same are stamped or not.

(3) In the case of wilful neglect to pay the duty required by this section the local authority shall be liable to forfeit to the State Government a sum equal to ten per centum upon the amount of duty payable, and alike penalty for every month after the first month during which such neglect continues.

Power to reduce,
remit or compound duties.

9. The State Government ¹[if satisfied that it is necessary to do so in the public interest,] may, by rule or order published in the Official Gazette,—

(a) reduce or remit, whether prospectively or retrospectively, in the whole or any part of the State the duties with which any instruments or any particular class of instruments or any of the instruments belonging to such class, or any instruments when executed by or in favour of any particular class of persons, or by or in favour of any members of such class, are chargeable, and

(D)—Of Valuations for Duty

Conversion of amount expressed in foreign currencies. 20. (1) Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any money expressed in any currency other than that of India, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such money in the currency of India according to the current rate of exchange on the day of the date of the instrument.

(2) The rate of exchange for the conversion of British or any foreign currency into the currency of India prescribed under sub-section (2) of section 20 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, shall be deemed to be the current rate for the purpose of sub-section (1).

Stock and marketable securities how to be valued. 21. Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any stock or of any marketable or other security, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such stock or security according to the average price or the value thereof on the day of the date of the instrument.

Effect of statement of rate of exchange or average price. 22. Where an instrument contains a statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, as the case may require, and is stamped in accordance with such statement it shall, so far as regards the subject matter of such statement, be presumed until the contrary is proved, to be duly stamped.

Instruments reserving interest. 23. Where interest is expressly made payable by the terms of an instrument, such instrument shall not be chargeable with duty higher than that with which it would have been chargeable had no mention of interest been made therein.

Certain instruments connected with mortgages of marketable securities to be chargeable as agreements. 24. (1) Where an instrument—
(a) is given upon the occasion of the deposit of any marketable security by way of security for money advanced or to be advanced by way of loan, or for an existing or future debt, or
(b) makes redeemable or qualifies a duly stamped transfer intended as a security or any marketable security, it shall be chargeable with duty as if it were an agreement or memorandum of an agreement chargeable with duty under Article No. 5(h) of Schedule I.

(2) A release or discharge of any such instrument shall only be chargeable with the like duty.
